In the winter is allowed to run Court street will be impassable for vehicles in a very short time.

The largest line of hats, mufflers, underwear and neckties in the city, at prices that are lower than the lowest, at C. S. Young & Co's.

There isn't a street in this city that needs the attention of the municipal authorities more than Court street does at the present time.

M. C. HUTCHINS, real estate agent, sold last Saturday a lot in Chester for Messrs. William H. and George Cox to William H. Crane and wife for $400.

There were fifteen additions to the Baptist Church yesterday. The meeting so far has resulted in much good, forty persons having united with the church.

Of course, every one has found it out before this, but this morning was decidedly "winterish," wasn't it? The mercury dropped to within ten degrees of zero.

Please call and settle your account at Ballenger's, and for every dollar paid you will get a ticket on the diamond ring and alms. See advertisement in another column.

The "Mound-builders" great work on Court street! If the city authorities don't believe it, let them pass along there any morning between six and eight o'clock.

Ones for J. F. Brodrick, insurance agent at the office of Mr. Geo. A. McCracken on Second street, one door below the Methodist Church will receive prompt attention.

To our friends, Colonel Fred, Bierbower and Mr. W. D. Hixson want to find out anything about "mound" and "mound builder" they should make a tour of investigation on Court street in this city.

Have been using Tongaloo upon a patient who has been suffering with neuralgia for fifteen years; the effect was remarkable. It gave immediate relief. R. T. Connally, M. D., Mountain Fork, Ark.

The Hon. J. D. Kellogg is announced in the Mayville papers as a candidate for Congress in this district. Dexter is a rater and will undoubtedly make a strong fight for the nomination.—Bracken Bulletin.

A log-barn belonging to James Mickey of the Lewisburg precinct was destroyed by fire late Friday night between 8 and 9 o'clock. We have not been able to learn the cause of the fire nor the amount of the damage.

One County Assessor's show that there were in this county when the last assessment was made, 5,000 horses. They were assessed at $197,000. The number of mules given in to the Assessor was $16, valued at $30,700; the number of sheep 7,623, assessed value $12,251.

There are 143,355 acres of land assessed for taxation in this county, the valuation of which is $4,621,917, according to the last assessor's books. If this land is given in at about two-fifths of what it would sell for in the market, as is generally the case, it would make its actual valuation about $11,554,972.

Fire.

The residence of Mr. Robert Melford, near this city was destroyed by fire early yesterday morning. The flames were discovered between 4 and 5 o'clock, and as the wind was blowing briskly at the time the building was soon destroyed. Some of Mr. Melford's family safely escaped with their lives, so speedily did the flames spread. The fire is supposed to have originated in a defective flue. Damage $1,000. Insurance $500.

"Ah, There I"

"Hello, Sallie," said George Thomas on Court street yesterday, "I've got a conundrum. What's the difference between this street and the most fashionable silk dress?"

"Give it up," said Clarence.

"One is all 'sobs of roses' and the other is all 'rows of ashs' and-'" then the cellar door gave way and George disappeared. Clarence is still in a critical condition.

A Sleepy Sermon.

The poor person is overworked, underpaid and underfed. His blood is thin. His stomach is ailing. His liver is all wrong, and of course his digestion is poor. Is it any wonder he puts his congregation almost to sleep by giving out the text? Brown's Iron Bitters will repair his broken down system and make him a new man. Rev. J. S. White of Rockhill, S. C., writes, "I need Brown's Iron Bitters for general debility. It has restored me to health and vigor." Many other physicians give similar testimony. The public is invited.

What Baptists Are Doing.

"Tontine" in his letter to the New York Examiner says: "The Baptists of Mayville are making a brave attempt to move forward. Pastor R. B. Garrett pleases everybody with his preaching, and is extremely popular as a new and better located house of worship. The rule is that the pastor leaves when a new house of worship is built, so the brother had better look out. A new house in Mayville, and in the near future too, is an imperative necessity. Something over half the needed amount is in sight, and it is going to take hard work to get the rest. I found everybody very free in saying what everybody else ought to give, but often the individual brother exhibited some embarrassment when asked to give an amount like that he freely assigned to others of equal ability. There is about as much human nature to the square mile in Mayville as in other places. The people were very kind to the visiting brother, who found a charming home with Dr. Strode, a leading physician in the State, his accomplished wife and their two bright and promising sons. The meeting is to be continued by Rev. Fred D. Hale, of Louisville, and the financial part will be pressed by Rev. W. P. Harvey, of Harrisburg. There are few finer communities than that at Mayville, and our church there contains some first-rate material."

The Best of The Kind.

Howorth's Hibernian and Comedy Company always gives an excellent entertainment. It is an old company and has a well established reputation. It appears here to-morrow night. The Galena (Ill.) Gazette in speaking of it has the following:

"To say that the audience were 'pleased' with the evening's entertainment is a compliment that Turner Hall by Howorth's Hibernians and Comedy Company, is certainly a mild way of expressing the feelings of the audience. The comic scene of the period remained bright and promising all night. The meeting is to be continued by Rev. Fred D. Hale, of Louisville, and the financial part will be pressed by Rev. W. P. Harvey, of Harrisburg. There are few finer communities than that at Mayville, and our church there contains some first-rate material."

Replacing Nerves.

Successful experiments have been made in joining and restoring the functions of living nerves, even those of different function, in order to replace those partially destroyed. It is thought that even sight and hearing may be restored, after injury to the nerves on which they depend by bringing other nerves into service by artificial union.

Apples and Grapes.

(Detroit Journal)

Eastern Connecticut is said to be ankle-deep in apples, and there are ten barrels of fruit for every barrel to put them in. New York, the year is brightened for that farm, especially among fruit and from their pigs, and older is selling them for 5 cents a gallon. Twenty-five bushels in the Hudson Valley also the year is approaching to exceed that of last year by 50 per cent. The market is now 25 cents a bushel, and the general price of fruit is a record. The great ladies who are a recent meeting in Philadelphia, condemned the use of cider and demanded the abolition of wine.

Much Like Cincinnati.

(Post-Dispatch, St. Louis)

Twenty-five years ago Philadelphia had the Southern trade almost exclusively. To day it does not have the one tenth of it. Why? People who don't want to look the matter squarely in the face or acknowledge it, prefer to say that the South is "a giant" in the making, and that the market is "expanding." The view, exhibited in the following article, and were to strike a contrast the views of Ireland. Should Mr. Howorth's excellent company ever again favorably appear in the market, it would be a great service to the South, as a section, a writer, more vindictive or abusively envious than Philadelphia, as it would be wherever you go."

PERSONAL.

Mr. James Wells is visiting his father, in Grant County.

Mr. John Altmyer is confined to his home by a spell of pleurisy.

James Cobb has returned home, after an absence of several weeks at Cincinnati.

Judge Garrett S. Wall is at Covington attending to some business in the U. S. Circuit Court.

Mrs. A. Bland, of Frankfort, Ky., who has been visiting friends in this city, left for home today.

Robertson for the benefit of his creditors. His many friends will regret to hear of his financial embarrassment. The assets and liabilities are not yet known.

In the County Court last Saturday, L. W. Robertson qualified as trustee of W. C. Richeson, with Emery Whitsaker as surety. G. W. Geisel, Geo. Heiser and C. C. Calhoun were appointed appraisers.

The Baptist Meeting.

Large numbers were turned away last night, unable to secure even standing room. There were fifteen additions to church yesterday, making forty in all during the meeting, and the meeting seems to be deepening in interest. Preaching this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Baptist Church and to-night at the court house again. Come early and get a good seat.

Less Partnership and More Honesty.

(Capital Sentinel)

We do not need politics in religion but we do need religion in politics.

Civil Service Reform.

(Buffalo Courier, D. M.)

Public sentiment put the civil service on the statute books, and public sentiment will keep it there.

Yum. Yum.

(Barreness News)

It is said that the price of first-class times in Pennsylvania is rarely over twenty-five cents per dozen.

Reaching Nerves.

Successful experiments have been made in joining and restoring the functions of living nerves, even those of different function in order to replace those partially destroyed. It is thought that even sight and hearing may be restored, after injury to the nerves on which they depend by bringing other nerves into service by artificial union.
